

EXPLORE SOUTH FORK, CO

One of the youngest municipalities in Colorado, South Fork is located in the foothills of the San Juan Mountains at the confluence of the Rio Grande and its South Fork. The resort atmosphere thrives during the peak summer and winter seasons when folks return to their vacation homes for the holidays and thousands of visitors come to recreate or to relax and get away from their hectic lives in the city.

The first Colorado
Gateway Community
for the Continental Divide
Trail Coalition

YOUR BASECAMP FOR ADVENTURE

and known as a family-recreation-oriented community with ATV trails, 20 miles of Gold Medal fishing, championship golfing, skiing, snowmobiling, and hunting.

AWARDED 2015 COLORADO TOP ADVENTURE SMALL TOWN BY ELEVATION OUTDOORS

7

RESTAURANTS

2

SPORTING
GOOD STORES

1

TAPHOUSE

1

HEALTH CLINIC

1

CHAMPIONSHIP
GOLF COURSE

255

MILES OF WINTER
RECREATION TRAILS

20 minutes from Wolf Creek Ski Area

ATV Friendly

Rafting & Fishing Guide Services

Logger Days Festival

Fiber & wireless internet – up to 1Gbps

Tourism driven economy

Gateway to the 117-mile
Silver Thread National Scenic & Historic Byway

